REMARKS

The Office of Patent Publication has discovered an inconsistency between the drawings and the specification of the instant application. Entry of the attached amendment to correct the inconsistency is respectfully solicited.

The amendment relates solely to formal matters, and changes the scope of no claim.

Specifically, the amendment brings the drawings into line with the specification by adding a "Prior Art" legend to Figure 1, and by adding a brief description of Figure 1 to the specification. Applicants submit that no new matter is added thereby.

Respectfully submitted,
Xiaobao X. Chen
